Your source for what's new, novel, and essential

1. Transform an interior with the Desert Garden mural from Mural Sources. The scene depicted evokes a dense, arid landscape, growing with a variety of species of cactus and agave. Available in four colorways. muralsources.com

2. Traditional and modern materials combine in Gloster's Dansk Collection, notably in their coffee table, defined by its clean, tapering lines. Light, tactile, and pleasant to the eye; made of teak, ceramic, and stone. gloster.com

3. The limited-edition Belgian linen towel in Clay Stripe from de Le Cuona is inspired by elements in both the town and country. The multipurpose towel features a sateen weave with a relaxed washed finish. delecuona.com

4. The handsome three-legged floor lamp from Rose Tarlow Melrose House comes in three distinctive finishes; the one shown here is in Pale Mahogany. The base height is 55" and the recommended wattage is 60. rosetarlow.com

5. Coffee tables are as necessary outdoors as in. The Teak Warehouse Soho Round coffee table is composed of seven-inch-wide teak boards, each more than an inch thick. Durable, stylish, useful. teakwarehouse.com

6. This pair of French-made rattan chairs, circa 1960, are featured at Schwung Home. Rattan furniture is noted for its versatility in the home, its intrinsic sturdiness, and style that manages to be casual and formal. schwunghome.com

7. These three African spears, set on stands, date from the nineteenth century, but they have the effect and presence of Modern sculptures. Available at Tara Shaw. tarashaw.com

8. After considerable testing at their headquarters in Richmond, Virginia, McKinnon and Harris developed the Buie Rocking Chair, which makes for comfortable rocking on a front porch, patio, or wherever you wish to converse with friends. mckinnonharris.com

9. A convex mirror is both a decorative element in a room, and something useful. The form has been used in interiors for centuries. This one from Charles Edwards incorporates a highly reflective nickel finish. charlesedwards.com

10. Perfect for the courtyard of a home, Peacock Pavers's Dolphin Grey and Slate make the ideal design statement. The 30" x 30" pieces are a lovely way to establish symmetry. peacockpavers.com

11. Here are the right kitchen ingredients, all from Downsview Kitchens: The Unica 04 island door in a milk glaze, finished in a wire-brushed oak; a Sea Pearl quartzite countertop; and porcelain tile flooring. downsviewkitchens.com

12. Ironware's Lucien Tabouret marries French modern design with handsome heavy-duty leather straps in a portable, folding utilitarian bench. A pair at the foot of your guest bed can serve as seating or as luggage racks. ironwareinternational.com

13. These black mushroom desk lamps, designed by Egon Hillebrand and produced by Hillebrand Lighting, are available at La Place Antiques. Minimalist and sculptural, the lamps, made in Germany circa 1970, feature metal shades positioned on polished chrome fixtures. laplaceantiques.com
