

EVOLUTIONS FROM CAMBIUM
CAMBIUMCARBON.COM

The Evolutions collection is crafted in collaboration with Urban Evolutions and features tables made from underutilized and salvaged trees—red oak, white oak, ash, maple, walnut, and cherry—transformed into Cambium’s technology-enabled and digitally traceable Carbon Smart Wood.

POMPEII FROM WOLF-GORDON
WOLFGORDON.COM

Designed in collaboration with Studioestudio, Pompeii is a sophisticated wallcovering collection that draws from the ancient patterns of Pompeii and modern designs of midcentury abstract artist Frank Stella. The diverse, versatile line offers endlessly configurable, art-driven wallcoverings for contemporary interiors.

PACIFICO ESTUARY FROM DESIGN & DIRECT SOURCE
DDSTILE.COM

Pacifico Estuary is a ceramic wall tile collection defined by sculptural reliefs and semi-transparent glazes. Curved and straight ridge profiles, along with coordinating flat options, allow for directional compositions. Offered in a classic 5x5-inch format, the palette balances soft pastels with saturated hues.

PLUME FROM JANUS ET CIE
JANUSETCIE.COM

Designed by Patrick Norguet, the European-inspired Plume high-back lounge chair draws from modernist clamshell forms and classic boho peacock silhouettes. Crafted from variegated, dual skein JANUSfiber over powdercoated aluminum frames, the collection is available in two colorways: Smoke/Bronze and Reed/Talc.

MARAVILLA FROM MATERIAL BESPOKE
STONE AND TILE

HOSPITALITY.EXPLOREMATERIAL.COM
Maravilla revives the ancient art of smalti mosaics through fully custom, handcrafted enameled glass. Made using centuries-old Italian formulas, the glass offers a richer, more nuanced alternative to conventional glass, with subtle coloration that lends a painterly depth.

FERN FROM GLOSTER
GLOSTER.COM

An addition to the Fern collection by Sebastian Herkner, the Fern aluminum high-back lounge chair reimagines the line in a powdercoated aluminum with woven outdoor rope. Drawing from the fronds of a fern leaf, it’s available in a dark Meteor or Gloster’s new, lighter Bone metal finish with complementary rope colors.
