

Dedicate Floor Lamp
by Thomas Bentzen
for Muuto
€595

Your home office could be uplifted with this reimagined architect lamp featuring handy enhancements like dimming and an auto-off setting. It stands at about 44 inches tall and, for now, is only available in Europe.

Ambient Compass
Lanterns by Gloster
Starting at $810

These woody, midprice lamps have exteriors of natural teak and wicker. Available in 13, 19, and 27 inches, their petite sizes make them ideal to hang next to a low profile sofa.

Pajama Standing Lamp
by Gervasoni
$929

This Tyvek-covered lamp leans into a classic silhouette with a drum-shaped shade, but it's the crinkled paperlike texture that keeps it haute depot.

Kite In-Flight 01
by Vy Voi
$10,000

Vietnamese dó paper is hand-applied to the swooping lampshade by designer Steffany Trần herself. Meticulous handiwork warrants a hefty price tag.

FLOOR LAMPS

These devices do more than just stand tall and proudly hover. Some cast artful shadows on the walls. Others brighten dim corners. Many, with their small bases, find perfect grounding where there's limited floor space. No matter how they're lit, it's all to towering effect.

Ms. Bowjangles
by Ingo Maurer
$1,200

It's a twofer! The loopy rod of this unique fixture connects to a support base, or it can separate from the base and mount directly onto the wall.
