

8 | Tuuci's Equinox Cabana is customizable with multiple shapes and sizes, including various options for a roof and side walls. With the choice of a bed or a bench — and optional features for outlets, music and lights — the cabana brings ultimate luxury to outdoor living. For a retailer and pricing, Tuuci.com.

9 | Concealed beneath a removable teak cover, the Nadia Beverage Tub Coffee Table holds an unexpected surprise: an area that stores up to 30 bottles of wine with ample room for ice. Crafted of powder-coated aluminum with natural teak sides and a sealed white marble top that resists stains. $2,795. Frontgate.com.

10 | Designed to seamlessly blend aesthetics with functionality, Gloster's Bar Cart has large wheels to facilitate smooth passage on uneven ground while the integrated handle ensures any maneuver is completed with ease. Twin trays offer all the space you need, and gently curled edges limit the potential for spills. $2,925. Gloster.com.

11 | The Mesa Round Accent Table from Klausner doubles as a planter or ice bucket. The top mimics aged teak, and the base is woven of high-density polyethylene over powder-coated aluminum. Table, $200; stainless-steel ice bucket insert, $80. KlausnerOutdoor.com.

12 | Barcalounger and Pacific Casual introduce the Barcalounger Outdoor Living Brand, offering motion upholstery for the outdoors in five collections. Made of woven extruded resin with an all-aluminum frame, the Pacific Shoreline recliner features a traditional rolled arm design with bun feet. $1,989. BarcaloungerOutdoorLiving.com.

As Featured in the June/July 2018 of

NEW JERSEY'S HOME & DESIGN MAGAZINE
designNJ

Outdoor Lighting

Enhance your home's curb appeal, brighten your backyard or turn any outdoor space from invisible to inviting with these fashionable fixtures

BY MEG FOX

1 | Ambient Cocoon lanterns from Gloster mimic the texture and symmetry of silk cocoons using soft integrated LED lights to create the perfect ambience. Made from modern plastics with a striking buffed teak handle. $785 each. Bain's Outdoor Living in Rumson, Garden Cottage in Fairfield and Morristown, or Gloster.com.

2 | The Lodge Outdoor Wall Lantern from Quoizel showcases clear hammered glass within a simplistic framework, highlighted with a Mystic Black finish. Chester Lighting in Chester, Freehold and Middletown.

3 | The six-light outdoor chandelier from Kichler's Lyndon collection combines a streamlined linear design with an emphasis on traditional details for an elevated yet laidback look. $658.33. Ferguson.com.

4 | The Ripley Outdoor Wall Sconce features a high-performance Trilux finish — exclusively from Currey & Co. — that provides three levels of protection and is fade-, crack- and rust-resistant. Chester Lighting in Chester, Freehold and Middletown.

5 | Designed by Libby Langdon for Crystorama, the traditional-inspired Sylvan four-light lamppost features an open angular frame with distinct architectural lines in a new matte black forged finish. Available with seeded or frosted glass. $478. Build.com or West Essex Lighting Studio in West Caldwell.

6 | Part of the Mesa Canyon Collection, the woven Mesa outdoor lamps from Klausner Outdoor come in four sizes to fit in a variety of settings. $299-$599. KlausnerOutdoor.com.

As Featured in the June/July 2018 of

NEW JERSEY'S HOME & DESIGN MAGAZINE
designNJ